

CURRENT OPENING

Senior Consultant

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

Maintain current skills to design, configure, and customize the SAP EH&S substance database, phrase administration, and Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) report distribution

Maintain current skills to design, configure, and customize SAP to support multiple EH&S instances, SAP ALE functionality, and SAP system security

Identify and integrate complimentary software solutions of TechniData, as well as partner companies, in order to provide client with a broad spectrum of integrated functional solutions (E.G. PlantWare, DokX, Ariel regulatory data, CED phrase library, etc.)

Help TechniData to build up an SAP system for demonstration, reference, and training, which contains a standard properties tree, MSDS template for the U.S., an ALE interface, report administration, SD interface, MM and SD basics

Transfer EH&S technical and functional know how to client user and IT support staff

Coordinate testing of new SAP EH&S releases

Work with ETI market communications group to create and disseminate key marketing materials, web communications, and trade exhibits

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

An undergraduate BS degree with emphasis on environmental or computer science, systems, computer, chemical, or electrical engineering, MBA, or other graduate degree. Equivalent experience in systems implementation, IT consulting, environmental systems consulting, or SAP implementation expertise. Minimum 3.0 GPA, (or equivalent work experience) plus 5+ years experience with system design, programming (preferably ABAP4), testing, and implementation. Good client service referrals and recommendations, and some experience with business process analysis, user requirements definition, and SAP functional capabilities. Good oral, writing, communication, and presentation skills